Assoc. Prof. dr. Mantas Bileišis: "Complicated Republics – public administration reforms in post-communist EU"

Assoc. Prof. dr. Mantas Bileišis is a member of the Institute of Public Administration at Mykolas Romeris University in Vilnius, Lithuania and heads the University's Laboratory of Public Management Innovation, which focuses on applied research for the public sector organizations of Lithuania.

The presentation will include an introduction to the laboratory's annual event co-organized with the Office of the Government, Ministry of Interior, and Department of Civil Service, which is scheduled to take place on Nov. 9th, and which will this year focus on Open Government.

The core of the presentation will cover the topic "Complicated Republics – public administration reforms in post-communist EU". The presentation will cover some of the findings in the book co-edited with Assoc. Prof. dr. Polona Kovač and due to be published later in 2016.

Lepo pozdravljeni,

prof. dr. Maja KLUN, prodekanja za znanstveno-raziskovalno dejavnost
