

VABILO NA 29. RAZISKOVALNI FORUM,
dne 19. december 2011,
ob 16.00 uri v predavalnici 19 na Fakulteti za upravo.

Dnevni red 29. raziskovalnega foruma:

I. Dr. Jovan Filipović; predstavitev doktorske disertacije z naslovom: MANAGEMENT OF THE SERBIAN DIASPORA VIRTUAL UNIVERSITY AS A COMPLEX ORGANIZATION (MENEDŽMENT SRBSKE DIASPORE VIRTUALNE UNIVERZE KOT KOMPLEKSNE ORGANIZACIJE)

The increasing potential of various forms of Diaspora capital (intellectual, social and financial) provides fertile ground for research studies on different aspects of Diaspora. On the other hand, policy makers need to acknowledge that Diaspora is not only an unexploited national resource, but Diaspora communities are also marginalized constituencies.

The thesis presents results of the research done to gain insight into magnitude and diversity of Diaspora human resource potential, which is both the stimulus and "warp and woof" of the Diaspora Virtual University. Extended data base, which also includes over 6400 Serbian PhD's, shows that practically there is no single field (academic, research, cultural, entrepreneurial, and sport) in which Serbian Diaspora is not significantly represented.

The model of the Serbian Diaspora Virtual University (SDVU) embodies a framework designed to enhance transformation of brain drain into brain gain through brain chain (networks) and the enabling processes for the purpose of improving administration performance. The thesis presents the reader with a flexible, malleable approach to Diaspora Virtual University (DVU), one that invites a diverse and creative method of interpretation. It intends to distill a clear philosophy on which the DVU concept will be founded and to come up with an operational design capable of instilling life into it. The thesis is approached largely from empirical and theoretical standpoints, from the perspective of a member of the Serbian intellectual Diaspora and a scholar. The findings were validated with the results of a survey designed for this purpose.
